Dear Valued Customer:

J & M Sanitation, Inc. is committed to providing the best service possible to you, our valued customers. In the one year since our last residential rate increase we have worked hard to hold the line on our rates, despite rising costs, while providing a quality service.

Over the past year we have absorbed increased costs of fuel, steel, labor, equipment, maintenance, and other expenses, some as high as 50% in the various expense categories. The landfill rates alone will increased 10% in the last year. To meet these expense increases we will be increasing our rates effective October 1, 2008. The following residential rate increase is only an annual average increase of 9% over the last year, while we have absorbed our expense increases.

Your next billing will reflect the: new residential rates:
